BACKGROUND

4. On June 27, 2023 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Court”), commencing these chapter 11 cases. SUMMARY OF SERVICES RENDERED

9. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a detailed statement of fees incurred by WBD during the Application Period in the amount of $80,000.00.

10. The services rendered by WBD during the Application Period are grouped into categories set forth in Exhibit A. The attorneys and paraprofessionals who rendered services relating to each category are identified, along with the number of hours for each individual and the total compensation sought for each category are set forth in Exhibit A.

SUMMARY OF EXPENSES

11. Attached as Exhibit B are WBD's itemized records detailing expenses incurred on behalf of the Debtors during the Application Period in the amount of $51.30. All entries detailed in Exhibit B comply with the requirements set forth in Local Rule 2016-2(e), including an itemization of the expenses by category, the date the expense was incurred, and the individual incurring the expense, where available.

12. WBD has not charged the Debtors for internal photocopying expenses. WBD also does not charge for outgoing facsimile transmissions.² The rates incurred by WBD in connection with third-party photocopying, electronic data management services, including scanning and document imaging, travel, travel-related expenses, business meals, messengers, couriers, postage, witness fees, and other fees related to trials and hearings are billed at cost, as set forth in Exhibit B. As per the Guidelines, WBD has not requested reimbursement of expenses related to overhead charges, such as secretarial services and proofreading.

In all respects, the firm's fees and expenses meet the standards for allowance under Bankruptcy Code section 330, as well as the standards that govern the review and allowance of bankruptcy professionals' fees.

14. In accordance with the factors enumerated in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, the amount requested is fair and reasonable given (i) the complexity of the case, (ii) the time expended, (iii) the nature and extent of the services rendered, (iv) the value of such services, and (v) the costs of comparable services other than in a case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.
